PARENTS, READ ME!

7 Ways to make Summer Reading a NON-CHORE!

- 1 Studies show that kids read more when they see others reading*—so make time to read yourself. Curl up with a book, right where your kid can see you.
- To understand what your child may be feeling about reading-as-chore, read

 Summer Reading Is Killing Me (Jon Scieszka) or Moxy Maxwell Does Not Love

 Stuart Little (Peggy Elizabeth Gifford).
- Reading as a leisure activity is the best predictor of comprehension, vocabulary, and reading speed. Remember that "reading" is not just chapter books; non-fiction, magazines, comics, and audiobooks all count.
- Kids often report that they have a hard time finding books that they like. If that happens, have a friend recommend books. Your kids are much more likely to enjoy something recommended by a friend than by a grownup.
- Plan regular trips to the library to refresh your reading options. Bank Street Library is open Mon-Thurs 9-10; Fri 9-5; Sat 10-5. Check out your local public library, too.
- 6 Visit bookstores for author events and storyhours, and invite friends too! Check bankstreetbooks.com for Bank Street Bookstore's calendar.
- 7 Make bookstore visits a treat. Give kids a set amount of money to buy a book or two, and just let it go when they choose The Day My Butt Went Psycho.
